

REMARKS

The following is responsive to the Office Action dated April 30, 2007.

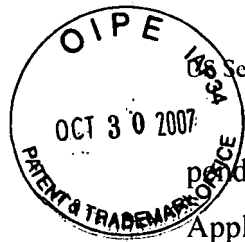

Claims 44, 46, 48, 49, 60-63, 66 and 83-95 were previously pending in this application. By the above amendments, Applicants have amended claims 63, 90-91, and 94-95, and canceled claims 44-62 and 92-93, without prejudice while reserving Applicant's right to later file and prosecute the canceled subject matter in a continuing (continuation, division, or Continuation-In-Part) application. Applicants respectfully request allowance and submit that all of the currently pending claims 63, 66, 83-89, 90-91, and 94-95 are now in condition for allowance for at least the reasons set forth below.

Applicants note with appreciation that the Examiner indicated that claims 66 and 83-89 are allowable. Additionally, the Examiner objected to claim 63 as depending on rejected claim 60 and indicated that claim 63 would be allowable if written in independent form. Applicants have addressed the Examiner's objection by redrafting claim 63 into independent form.

Applicants have also addressed the Examiner's rejections to claims 90-91 and 94-95 by amending claims 90-91 and 94-95 to depend from claim 63 with all its limitations. Applicants believe that these amended dependent claims overcome the rejections and should be allowable.

Additionally, claims 64-65, 68-71, 74-82 were previously withdrawn. Applicants have amended these withdrawn claims so they depend on the allowable claims as amended herein. Such claims are now in condition for allowance and Applicants request they be allowed according to 37 CFR § 1.141.

In view of the foregoing, all of the pending claims are believed allowable and the Applicants appreciate the Examiner's consideration for allowance. If the Examiner finds that the pending claims are not in condition for allowance, Applicants request that the Examiner contact Applicant's representative at 269.383.5833.
